Conference Proposal Writing Workshop

Session 1: Knowing the Submission Landscape

With Guest Lecturer: Dr. Donna Trueit, The University of British Columbia

Curriculum Theory Graduate Student Collaborative
Professional Development Series

We are pleased to announce our guest lecturer for session 1 will be, Dr. Donna Trueit, professor at The University of British Columbia. Dr. Trueit will join us to share insights about the proposal and submission processes!

This professional development session is the first in a three-part series. The session is intended to stimulate conference proposal writing, provide writing tips, and share strategies for increasing proposal acceptance opportunities.

This workshop is open to all graduate students interested in preparing proposals for any/all upcoming local, national, and international conferences, particularly AERA.
